Do these dates mean anything to you?
How about if we leave for london the night of the twenty fourth. We spend the twenty fifth and sixth in London and go to Paris the night of the twenty sixth. We stay in Paris till Labor Day and either come back Labor Day or the day after.
That is one scenario good for us but there are others so if you make your needs known we can refashion a different one more to your liking. I have to be on Paris the twenty seventh ,eighth, and ninth but of this is not good for you no problem as we can easily get transportation and meet you there.
We have comfortable transportation home as well if leaving as suggested is bad for you. What's best for you?

If you want to watch editing we are putting in music and you are welcome from nine on. We break at noon and resume about one fifteen. Come anytime you like, stay as long or short as you like. If Friday is not good there are many other days to choose from.
