when i asked if you had a tattoo. you responded do you? !, highly inappropriate to ask that of someone who is conducting an interview. . that being said, you seem to have good qualifications.

12:01:22 pm

that goes along with the advice for next time

12:01:55 pm

Thank you for letting me know Jeffrey, I understand what you mean and that I was being too casual.

I am very understanding . as I have my own early preconceptions to deal with. . . however , in the future this is work, you can ask questions like that on a date not at an interview.

12:04:58 pm

coincides with your video.

12:05:40 pm

You are completely right and I should have considered this more, maybe its partially due to the more calm work environment in europe but its unacceptable as i know that the business world in the us is different, i will really keep this in mind.

12:07:47 pm

I really appreciate your time and you giving me advice.
