not sure what to do. i believe in you , but i have seen no real effort . discipline or action. We agreed you had made some mistakes in the past. and you would need to demonstrate a willingness to get your ass in gear. however to date the effort has not been what i know you are capable of. .

12:01:30 pm

you told me you ad set up three consultations. ? in barcelona.? then ...

12:02:32 pm

Yes I had 3 consultations the first I traveled up 25km out of Barcelona which was horrible he was very unconvincing for me and even his office was not very reassuring that I would be happy with results. The 2nd they had once a procedure similar to mine from

Girl In Ibiza he sent me pictures because he didn't have it on file the day I went and I didn't like the outcome of the surgery. The 3rd one wanted 100 euros for the consultation and now I just received an email from one agency recommending me to go visit her dr who is also just out of Barcelona. I emailed so many doctors and researched a lot on the type of implant etc. I have been 100% committed to keeping fit and getting toned I can officially start my sessions on Monday but the problem is that is 640 euros for the month. Even on the days I didn't have a trial session I do 40-1hour run and home exercises. What set me back this week was that I had to do a shoot for a magazine I did in March for 3 days and because I needed the money I was focused on this for the week. I cannot do much but hope that you can see my heart is dying for this opportunity not just for myself but to be able to show my family that I did something and that they can be proud of who I have become

i understand , again don't you think had you sent me a note that says I need to go to Dubai , so i will delay doing what i promised. instead of me having to try to track you down thru Daniel . shows a lack of responsibility

i don't want to be too hard on you however without guidance you seem to veer off course

12:38:16 pm

I never ask anything from Anyone in this life so I am really intimidated by someone like you and I have a lot of admiration for who you are as a person.. yes I completely understand what you are saying and you are right. I don't have much to say but I apologize for making it seem like I was irresponsible and ungrateful for what is in front of me. The rest is up to you ..I could sit here all day and possibly write a 5000 essay on why you shouldn't turn back on me but in the end I need to understand that each action has a consequence. I hope you're having a good day :)

12:41:20 pm

I was even thinking once my operation was done I could fly back to Australia apply for my us visa and come to New York
