Yes, I have a meeting scheduled for 10 but I'll be late for it I guess. I would like to participate.

Laura- I apologize for this going today; I thought the email was sent Friday. I'm confused because in the below email chain Claire stated that she is in your AOR and you would reach out.

She didn't respond because she was frustrated and in crisis. I told her that I would assist since it didn't appear that you or another VS would go meet her in person to help stabilize the crisis; and assist with appropriate trauma focused therapist referrals. She doesn't have victims compensation fund so that will not work. She sent me a link that she found for crime victims programs and I told her that I would assist in reaching out to them to coordinate services.

Thanks

Angela

Hi Angela,

She is not in my AOR but I did speak with her. She asked that I text her information so I referred her to www.counselingcalifornia.com so she can find a therapist in her area that takes payments from the victims compensation program. She had mentioned she has insurance so I let her she can also check with her insurance company to find a therapist that takes her insurance. I didn't hear back from her.

Please let me know if there is anything else I can do to assist.

Thank you,

Laura Lopez

Hi Laura - I am the VS in New York that is handling the Epstein case. I am receiving texts right now from the victim that you are sending her websites that she can find a therapist herself? I am a little confused as our job is to assist them in locating an appropriate one. She said none of these on this site are even close to her.

Are you not familiar with trauma therapists in your AOR? I can just assist her if that is easier because she is in crisis and needs immediate assistance.

Please let me know how to proceed?

Thanks

Angela
