I have spoken with [REDACTED] on multiple occasions and have referred her to SASO (sexual assault services organization) in [REDACTED]. She met with an advocate there and they have begun working with her.

Her biggest issue is that she is homeless. She also doesn't have current identification. SASO has ordered her a birth certificate so we can then get a valid ID to assist in getting employment. They also gave her food cards to the local grocery store.

She is currently refusing any housing assistance. She has a dog and she is unwilling to leave him for any reason. She is living in a tent near the river in [REDACTED]. As of right now, that is where she wants to be.
