All seems appropriate. Any responses to the initial email blast?

In the RSVP language I did modify this sentence, "As the briefing will be held in a federal building, we are also requesting some detailed information."

.....to this sentence.....

As the briefing will be held in a federal building, we are requesting some personal information needed to meet security requirements.

Hello [REDACTED],

Please find attached two documents that need to be reviewed and approved by NY. The first document is a the RSVP questionnaire and the second document is draft language for emails to be sent at a later date. Please let me know if you have questions.
