That is wonderful. I think that the FBI and the prosecutors will definitely want to interview [REDACTED] if we can get her here. She has a vast amount of information and was unfortunately brought over from [REDACTED] to the US a number of times by Epstein and she saw a lot and interacted with a number of people. I would think an interview of [REDACTED] (based on the past interviews I have been in) would last about 2 hours or so. I could try to fly in the NY the day before the meeting and we could do the interview that afternoon on the 22nd if that would work.

[REDACTED] is coming in for the meeting – she will be driving in the day of the meeting. She may be able to do an interview right after the meeting.

[REDACTED] met with prosecutors briefly but she struggled a bit in the meeting and we had limited time so her interview was not completed. Not sure if they would like to reschedule that interview but I know she plans to come to the meeting. We could try to do that the day before on the 22nd as well if that would work.

Let's try to work out a schedule.

Best,

For some reason when I looked at the list below the victim's names got pushed together on one line – just wanted to point that out so you don't miss the names. Thus far I have 8 clients that plan to attend the NY session.

Thank you,
