I just realized that I didn't respond to this message about [REDACTED] - sorry! [REDACTED] is going to be living in West New York in about a month; they're mid-move right now. I have given her Ms. Edelstein's name, but if there are any other referrals you have for her, please feel free to forward them to me and I'll get them to her.

Thanks!

Oh darn. I was hoping to take that one out of the FBI's $$ column for you.

I will let the women know that we're just waiting for a final approval and whatever other info you might need.

Would you mind sending me Kayla's contact info in Newark so I can get some referrals for [REDACTED] Or would you prefer to be involved in that part? I'm fine either way but I know you're busy so feel free to put whatever you need onto my plate.

Jessica - the crime has to have occurred within New York State to be eligible for OVS crime victims compensation.

I sent the request for the 12 sessions to my supervisor for approval and just waiting for formal approval. The case agent said all three are confirmed identified victims so we should be good to go once I receive formal approval.

One amendment to my email below: [REDACTED] is actually still a NY resident technically. She has an NY DL and address at this time, but is planning a move to Jersey in the coming months. Would she be able to qualify for the NYS victims' fund by chance? Unlimited therapy would be better than 12 sessions (and I'm sure you'd like to have someone other than the FBI pay if possible).

Thank you so much for giving me a call today to discuss the therapy options for [REDACTED]. As I mentioned, [REDACTED] All three are in need of counseling services.

You mentioned that you will double-check the list of known JE victims to confirm they are eligible for therapy assistance. I am providing these names to you confidentiality with the understanding that they will never become part of a public record and will otherwise remain confidential due to the women's statuses as victims of child sexual abuse by Jeffrey Epstein. They have never been publicly identified in any court records or media.

1 [REDACTED]
2 [REDACTED]
3 [REDACTED]

In the event that one or more of these women has not been previously identified to the FBI, please let me know what information you need to determine their eligibility and I will get it to you in short order.

I would ask that all contact about these three women be through me (or my office) rather than with the women directly. As we discussed on the phone, among the lingering effects for each of them is a fundamental distrust of anyone trying to obtain information Epstein. He was not above lying and trickery during the course of the lawsuits and he certainly had enough resources to buy real-looking fake credentials for people to pose as FBI agents, so as sad as it is, they all assume that anyone who contacts them has to be lying about their identities and motives. Also, as I mentioned, none of them have shared with their spouses/partners that they were abused by Epstein, and the more people contacting them, the harder it is to keep that a secret. It is probably best for everyone that I'm the communications conduit for everything.

Please let me know what you need to get the counseling for each up and running. I will contact the therapist that I know in the WPB area that Vanessa was interested in seeing to see if she takes credit cards, and I will also do some homework on Randi Cogan, another therapist in that area that you mentioned. [REDACTED] will definitely need some referrals or recommendations if you have them; she does not have any particular therapist in mind at this time.

Thanks again. And please know that I remain committed to assisting your team with their investigation in any way that I can, even if it does not involve my clients specifically. Between Brad, Brittany, Adam and I, we probably have the best combined institutional knowledge of the case through 2011. I will readily admit that Brad is a much better resource for everything post-2011. But if I can assist in any way, please let me know.
