Hey ██████████ - I'm on my way to the dentist. Can we touch base later or tomorrow morning?

Also I am under the impression Sarah speaks English.

Thank you!

Hi all,

After speaking to ACS, it appears all they would really be able to provide is a list of English speaking doctors... not necessarily the best or anything of that nature. Inasmuch as she lives here.. and unknown to me, but presumably she speaks Spanish, this may not be the best option.

I recommend the following:

██████████, can you reach out direct and speak to the victim to talk through a few things:

1. Where exactly does she live? This will matter because the list of doctors is mostly Madrid and Barcelona centric.

2. Does she need an English speaking doctor, or is she comfortable enough speaking Spanish.
3. Would she like the list or does she have her own doctor and is only looking to see what exactly we offer.
4. If I understand correctly, our services are a. getting her a list and b. advising how many sessions we pay for etc.
5. It needs to be said that the list is only a list of english speaking doctors, while it implies "embassy approved", many of these doctors the embassy knows very little about.. so they aren't endorsing these, the embassy is simply advising they speak english, just want her to understand that part of it.

So, [REDACTED] can you reach out direct please. Her email is below but I don't see a number, but looking at the string she obviously spoke with [REDACTED] in NY. Perhaps she has a #.

Thanks

I apologize [REDACTED], I missed this email asking what to do if [REDACTED] mentions that she hasn't given a victim statement. We briefly spoke with [REDACTED] when she attended the victim conference after Epstein's death, but she did not have time to do a full interview. My understanding is trying to work out a time with her US based lawyer, [REDACTED], to coordinate another interview and the possibility of doing it via video conference. She also has my contact information so she can reach out at any time.

Hi [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] - hope the new year is off to a great start! I am reaching out to see where we are with this and if American Citizens Services has contacted this victim yet?

Thanks again for your help!

Hi [REDACTED],

Our contact in American Citizen Services, US Embassy Madrid, has a list of service providers for [REDACTED] and will reach out to her on Monday. Did [REDACTED] ever respond with a phone number to contact her?
When and if [REDACTED] elects to begin treatment, I assume she would submit receipts for reimbursement. If this is not the case, please advise.

Also, I read that [REDACTED] mentioned she has not provided a victim statement yet.
[REDACTED] how would you like this handled if [REDACTED] brings this up again?

I've included [REDACTED], Legat Madrid in this email chain so that he remains up to date.

Thanks everyone and enjoy your weekend.

As you know my client [REDACTED] was unable to travel for the victims' meeting but she is very interested in learning about the victims' services that may be available to her particularly any therapy sessions. She presently resides in Spain.

Could you please send her the information from the meeting?
