Good evening,

Thank you for your response.

If you live farther than 50 miles from your selected location, your transportation and lodging will be arranged at no cost to you. If you choose to drive to the location, mileage and parking can be reimbursed. As the briefing will be held in a federal building, we are requesting some personal information needed to meet security requirements. Please complete and return the attached 'RSVP Questionnaire' so we can better assist you.

Also, we reviewed your file and it looks like you've already been opted out of mail notifications. They will continue to be sent via email, as you requested. Please let us know if you inadvertently receive mail and we can look into the matter as sometimes our system experiences glitches.

Respectfully,
FBI Victim Services Division
