Hey [REDACTED], sorry for not getting back right away I have been on vacation. I don't have any extras right now. I plan on getting additional coins at a later date if people want to place an order. The ones I have left belong to a few people that I need to ship out. I will let you know when I place the order. Hope you had a good 4th

Hey [REDACTED]- congratulations on the big arrest! Sorry to email this on a Saturday but just remembered this and didn't want to forget to ask if you had extra challenge coins? I asked [REDACTED] but she wasn't sure. If you do I would love to buy some more. These are celebrity tokens when you say this is the squad who arrested Epstein and Maxwell 😊

Have a great and safe weekend!!
