Hiiii!!

So happy you sent this!! I watched it last night...the plots thicken and it just gets more and more interesting. I wasn't crazy about the fact that it was on Lifetime, though. Lifetime is often over-dramaticized (if that's a word) and I was worried it would negatively impact people's perceived authenticity of the victims' statements...especially when the surrounding commercials were "My Psycho Sister-in-law" LoL

Miss you!!
