Im so sorry I'm just getting back to you now. We had a last minute OP that took all day/night. Thank you for speaking to her. If there's anything else I can do, please don't hesitate to reach out. Have a great rest of the week!

[REDACTED] - I just spoke to her and let her know that behavior wasn't acceptable towards a person who was trying to help her. She brought it up before I was able to - she told me to tell you she is sorry. I also told her texts are discoverable and needs to watch what she sends.

I'm sorry she treated you like that. She will call these places tomorrow.

I really appreciate your help!
Thanks so much!

Hi there.

I spoke to her on more than one occasion and provided her with the resource that would best suite her needs. Pittsburgh Action Against Rape. I explained to her to not be turned off by the name. That they are not a rape crisis center but rather the experts in the area in sexual assault trauma etc.

I then received several odd texts from her angry to be "passed off" for a rape assessment (although she hadn't called them yet) and then something about their WIFI showing up as her list to choose from on her internet.

To be honest, I'm not sure at this point what else to do for her. Any suggestions are welcome?

Thanks

Hey [REDACTED] hope you are doing ok! The victim in this case has resurfaced and her attorney called me to see if we could assist in connecting her to therapy referrals. What do you think is the best way- would you like me to give her your number?

Thanks again for your help!

Hi there.
I didn't want to take up time on the phone. Thank you for the additional information..I did want to let you know that I hav not heard back from the victim. I left her a message on Friday. If you would like me to try again just let me know.

Also let me know what else you need on my end. Anything you need at all in here to assist.

Thanks again
