Hi [REDACTED] –

I hope you're both doing well these days! This all seems fine to me, and no issues with their draft from my perspective, but please let me know if any additional info from me or our office would be useful, or if it would be helpful to discuss. Thanks again, and I hope she's able to resolve this.

Best,

[REDACTED]

Hi [REDACTED],

As indicated, we are working with Sanctuary for Families on [REDACTED] pending t-visa application. USCIS raised a question about the trips in 2020 and 2021 that she made out of the country to renew her visa and extend her status so she could continue her cooperation. Attached is the letter which your office graciously provided back in 2022, which we submitted in support of the application, as well as an email chain with AUSA [REDACTED] regarding the visa issue in 2020. [REDACTED] is cc-ed here (hi [REDACTED] – I hope you are doing well).

We would really appreciate a short letter from your office or the Justice Department on this issue.

I am sorry to send another email on this but we are trying to send out the full response to USCIS by June 20th. I hope this isn't presumptuous but, because of the time constraints, attached is a draft letter with some proposed language and information.

This is just a suggestion and possible guide if your office is inclined to submit a letter. Please feel free to cut down or modify anything.

Please email any letter directly to me and we will incorporate it into the response to USCIS.

As you may know, Nadia cooperated extensively with the U.S.V.I. Department of Justice in connection with their related litigation.

They are supporting the t-visa application.

We really appreciate your continued support of Nadia who is working on her healing and finally trying to put all of this behind her.

Thanks and please let me know if you have any questions.

EFTA01653154

Very truly yours,
Erica

Hi [REDACTED],

I hope you both are doing well. We are still working w Sanctuary for Families on [REDACTED] pending t-visa application. USCIS raised a question about the trips in 2020 and 2021 that she made out of the country to renew her visa and extend her status so she could continue her cooperation. We would really appreciate a short letter from your office on this issue I have drafted something if that would be helpful. She is finally trying to have a somewhat normal life. We really appreciate your continued help and support.
Thanks!
