Thank you again for contacting the PayPal Global Investigations Team. We have reviewed your inquiry referenced above and a link to access the information will be emailed to you.

*Note: You will need to click on the link in the email to access the requested records. When prompted, you will enter the password you previously created on our Safety Hub - PayPal Law Enforcement Tool.

While you wait for your records to be delivered, please contact your local IT department and ensure you are able to receive messages from the @paypal.com domain and that your computer is able to download .exe files. Please see the attached guide for information on how to interpret the records as well as additional information on our Safety Hub - PayPal Law Enforcement Tool.

If you require any further information please contact us via email at lawenforcement@paypal.com.

Thanks again for your inquiry and we look forward to working with you.

Regards,

PayPal Global Investigations
