Reportable Information	Media reports indicated FBI releases information related to a report provided by Sen. Grassley detailing that the FBI blocked an investigation into allegations that the Chinese Communist Party manufactured fake driver's licenses and shipped them to the U.S. to influence the 2020 presidential election in favor of Joe Biden, as it would contradict then-FBI Director Christopher Wray's congressional testimony, according to newly declassified FBI documents obtained by Fox News Digital. Research further indicates the report was declassified in June of 2025 by Director Patel.
