Low Income Assistance for Telephone Service - Lifeline and Link-Up

Low income support may be available for your home telephone service. Lifeline and Link-Up provide assistance with monthly recurring and connection charges to qualified residential telephone subscribers. These programs make telephone service more accessible to those who otherwise might not be able to afford it.

You may be eligible if you currently receive income-based benefits from a plan such as Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF), Food Stamps, Medicaid, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP), or Federal Public Housing/Section 8. If you are at or below 125% of the poverty level, but not currently receiving benefits from one of the listed programs,

ITEM Federal Universal Service Charge Increase CODES AMOUNT

The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) recently announced an increase in the factor that determines how much BellSouth contributes to the Federal Universal Service Funds. These funds are designed to help keep telephone rates affordable and to expand telephone services to schools and rural areas. You will see a corresponding increase in the Federal Universal Service monthly charge that recovers this increased payment by BellSouth. The increase will be effective April 1, 2005, and will be reflected on April and May 2005 bills. This charge will not be applied to Lifeline accounts.

ITEM Federal Universal Service Charge Increase CODES AMOUNT

The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) recently announced an increase in the factor that determines how much BellSouth contributes to the Federal Universal Service Funds. These funds are designed to help keep telephone rates affordable and to expand telephone services to schools and rural areas. You will see a corresponding increase in the Federal Universal Service monthly charge that recovers this increased payment by BellSouth. The increase will be effective April 1, 2005, and will be reflected on April and May 2005 bills. This charge will not be applied to Lifeline accounts.
