I firmly acknowledge that if I had the chance to go back in time, I would like to believe that I would hopefully show better judgement. I have since paid my debt to society of now decade-old crimes, as described by law. (having served the exact same time to the day, 13 months, as every other inmate sentenced to 18 months in jail) and resolving all civil claims. I have since, continued full steam ahead in keeping with my long established history of funding cutting edge science. This, in a very modest attempt to make the world a better place. I have previously asked and received forgiveness from my family and friends and would hope that others would show similar compassion. I have made peace with my god, and would only hope that others would find peace with theirs.
