The magazine is jumpy so they're planning to call every name referenced in the piece today. Not an unusual practice, but perhaps it's worth you sending a heads up to people quoted--particularly Summers--and anybody else that might be surprised.

And just to reiterate, we can still bail on the whole project. But I still feel this will be a net positive and you get maximum control with this piece. But I'm fine with whatever you decide.

Moderating = panel this morning of television people, but free by 9:30.
