Jeff,

Hope you are feeling better. I have found the perfect solution. I spoke with aup (American University of Paris) and they told me I can transfer to their school in September from Marangoni. They also told me that since I have a French Baccalaureat from my previous school which is considered very good I can skip a year and enter directly in 2nd year. For the Toefl they told me that with 81 I can enter but I should take some English extra classes. However, if I get 88 I don't need them. I have lots of friends going there and all of them are very happy. It is very international and it is fully accredited. What do you think ?
