Martyr (Shahid) Samir Kuntar, goodbye"
=Fatah Twitter account, Dec. 20, 2015]

"Secretary-General of the Palestinian Liberation Front [and PLO Executive Committee member] Dr. Wasel Abu Yusuf stated that 'Israel's assassination of Lebanese-Palestinian Arab fighter Samir Kuntar is a new crime perpetrated by the occupation against Arab fighters... He believed in the concept of resistance and implemented it in Palestine since his youth, in the heroic operation (i.e., terror attack) in Nahariya."

Fatah Central Committee member and Fatah Commissioner of Arab Relations and Relations with China Abbas Zaki sent a letter of condolence to his honor Hassan Nasrallah (i.e., Secretary-General of Hezbollah)... The letter said: 'We received with pride and honor the news of the death as a Martyr of the national hero, one of the outstanding knights, senior among prisoners, Martyr of the Lebanese resistance and Martyr of Palestine, the late Samir Kuntar, who died as a Martyr through traitors, in a despicable bombing by the Zionist entity's airplanes. We swear to the Martyr to continue in the way of struggle until victory, Allah willing, and until the purification of the Palestinian and Arab land from the Israeli occupation and the criminal gangs. To him be glory in paradise with the prophets and truth speakers, and to you and us, to his family and those who love him, patience and condolences for his glorious death as a martyr.

[Abbas Zaki's Facebook page, Dec. 20, 2015]"

"Arab-Lebanese fighter Samir Kuntar became involved in the Palestinian national struggle at an early age, when he joined the Palestine Liberation Front. Samir was endowed with courage and valor, and continued the path of struggle. In April 1979 he came off [a boat] off the Nahariya (i.e., Israeli city) coast, and carried out his operation (i.e. terror attack), in which 5 Israelis were killed, and several others were wounded... Samir Kuntar's body is gone, but the spirit and lessons drawn from his pioneering experience remain present in the Palestinian national history, as well as the Lebanese and Arab history."

[Al-Hayat Al-Jadida, Dec. 22, 2015]

Al-Mayadeen TV report about a Gazan Palestinian who named his newborn son after Samir Kuntar:

Commission of Prisoners and Released Prisoners' Affairs established a house of mourning for the most senior of Arab prisoners, Martyr (Shahid) Samir Kuntar, who Israel assassinated... Director of PLO Commission of Prisoners' Affairs Issa Karake stated: 'Martyr Samir Kuntar is a Palestinian symbol... We gather today in honor of Martyr Kuntar, in order to accompany him to his wedding (i.e., Martyr's funeral) as a Martyr, in the name of all the Palestinian people, and in order to emphasize to him and to everyone fighting for Palestine - you will remain present throughout our lives. We will not forget your heroic acts and sacrifice, and we will talk about you with all future generations. We will tell them: Kuntar rubbed the nose of the occupier in the dust here... Karake sent the occupation a message that it must begin to prepare for its demise, stating: 'The era of its injustice and crimes is about to end and be wiped out, and soon the [Palestinian] prisoners will be released, and the prisons will be empty out.'

[Ma'an, independent Palestinian news agency, Dec. 22, 2015]

Headline: "Tirawi condemns assassination of fighter leader Samir Kuntar"

Fatah Central Committee member [and former head of the PA General Intelligence] Tawfiq Tirawi, condemned yesterday [Dec. 20, 2015] in an announcement, the assassination of fighter leader, released prisoner Samir Kuntar...

Tirawi stated that this heinous crime is added to the history of terror by the Israeli occupation state, which insists on continuing with the killing and destruction anywhere it pleases...

Tirawi stated that targeting the fighter Kuntar who [fought] at the battlefield against ISIS and the forces of darkness and terror, is a proof of the occupation government's support of ISIS and its partnership with ISIS in causing the dissolution of the Arab states. This is in order to redraw the political map in the region in a manner that would serve the new colonialist conspiracy in the Arab region, which is aimed at eliminating the Palestinian cause. Tirawi expressed deep sorrow and extended his warm condolences to the family of the deceased Martyr, Samir Kuntar, who fought in the revolution from a young age. He said that the grief for a fighter who dedicated his life to the Palestinian and Arab cause is the same in Palestine, Lebanon, and the entire Arab world."

Abu Al-Einein added that Martyr (Shahid)

Abu Al-Einein sent condolences on fighter Samir Kuntar's death to the Martyr's family, Hezbollah, the Lebanese and Palestinian people and freedom fighters around the world... He called on the Arab and Islamic nations to consolidate a unified position concerning Israel's schemes to destroy the entire region."

Secretary-General of the Palestinian Liberation Front [and PLO Executive Committee member] Dr. Wasel Abu Yusuf stated that 'Israel's assassination of Lebanese-Palestinian-Arab fighter Samir Kuntar is a new crime perpetrated by the occupation against Arab fighters... He believed in the concept of resistance and implemented it in Palestine since his youth, in the heroic operation (i.e., terror attack) in Nahariya. Upon his release from the occupation's prison, after over 30 years (sic.) he chose [to continue] his way with the Lebanese Hezbollah, and continued his struggle in Lebanon, after his release from captivity."

[Al-Hayat Al-Jadida, Dec. 21, 2015]

Video headline: "Samir Kuntar was born in Gaza"

"Palestinian citizen Maher Hathat from Khan Younis, in the south of the Gaza Strip, named his newborn son after Martyr (Shahid) Samir Kuntar, today, Sunday [Dec. 20, 2015]"

Al-Mayadeen TV reporter: "Israel failed to eliminate the name of Martyr Samir [Kuntar], as the shriek of newborn Samir crosses horizons, indicating that Palestine and Lebanon are a single heart... Allah gave Maher a child, and behold, Samir Kuntar was reborn on the day of his death"

The newborn's father Maher Hathat: "The least we would do is to name him after Samir Kuntar... because he rebelled for Palestine."

Al-Mayadeen TV reporter: "The body of Samir Kuntar has left the world, but his soul is eternal, spreading hope and resolve for the liberation of Palestine."

[Quds Net News Agency, Dec. 20, 2015]

Samir Kuntar - A Lebanese terrorist who murdered 4 Israelis in Nahariya in 1979: 3 members of the Haran family - 4-year-old Einat Haran, who Kuntar murdered by smashing her head with his rifle butt, 2-year-old Yael, who was accidentally suffocated as her mother tried to keep her silent while they hid from the terrorists, and their father, Danny Haran - and Eliyahu Shahar, the first policeman to respond. Kuntar was sentenced by Israel to 4 life sentences. He was released in a deal between Israel and Hezbollah in July 2008, exchanged for the bodies of Eldad Regev and Eyal Goldwasser, Israeli soldiers kidnapped and killed by Hezbollah in 2006.

O= Dec. 19, 2015, he was killed in an explosion in Syria. An Israeli airstrike is suspected by some, though the Free Syrian Army took credit.
