Itamar Marcus and Nan Jacques Zi=berdik

The Palesti=ian Authority Minister of Women's Affairs, Haifa Al-Agha, who is herself a=woman, recently praised Palestinian women pointing out their "uniqueness" =ompared to all the other women of the world because they rejoice upon the =ews of the death of their sons:

"[PA] Minister of Women's Affairs Haifa Al-Agha... noted the Palest=nian woman's uniqueness, which differentiates her from the women of the wo=ld, as [only] she receives the news of her son's Martyrdom with cries of j=y." make "cries of joy" when their sons die, was voiced by the PA ministe= during the current wave of terror attacks. Many young Palestinians have b=en killed as they stabbed or attempted to stab Israelis. By praising mothe=s for their "cries of joy," Minister Al-Agha is sending a message to PA so=iety to attack Israelis without fear of death because Martyrdom for Allah =s said to be the highest value and highest achievable status.

The ministe= also added that Palestinian women are noteworthy not only because they ce=brate death but because they fight as well:

"The Palestinian girls and women have proven their ability to contribute to their homeland, and that they have a significant presence in the field and battle arenas."

During the current wave of Palestinian attacks, Palestinian Media Watch <<http://www.palwatch.org>> has shown examples of parents who expressed joy over their son's Martyrdom and rejoiced that their "Martyr" son was going to "Paradise" to marry the 72 virgins, according to Islamic belief.

PMW has exposed that during the current terror campaign, official PA and Fatah leaders and institutions idolize terrorists
