Our app has been receiving a lot of praise and attention from some of the biggest companies on the planet, and we wouldn't be here without your help!

As you may or may not know we were recently featured on Wired, BBC, NPR, TedX, and Business Insider (to name just a few), and the message was the same: "focus@will helps me get stuff done!"

As you know our service increases focus up to 400%, reduces distraction and gives you energy. We're constantly updating our music library, and partnering with ground breaking companies (such as our recent launch with Sonos and Bulletproof Coffee)!
