Holds 4 USB 2.5" External Hard Drives for Easy Backpacking

April 21, 2015

Verified Purchase

I needed something that would carry 4 external USB 2.5" hard drives. After striking out searching directly for a product that was listed for carrying USB hard drives I decided to improvise. This worked beautifully. Now I can easily carry my 4 external drives in my backpack and not worry about them jumbling up in the bottom of the bag. They stay nice and flat between my laptop and my notebook. I only wish it was more durable, but let's face it these pocket pages were meant for holding paper or photos, not hard drives. And with 20 in the set, if I rip through one, there are 19 more just like it.

Great for holding seeds

March 4, 2015

Verified Purchase

I bought this protective sleeves to hold seed packets in a binder, and they work quite well! All my packets fit nicely, and the pockets on the sleeves close well enough so that my seeds don't fall out. I ended up getting another order of sleeves because I have so many seeds! I imagine they would work equally well for cards, etc.

Great when they ship the right item

March 29, 2019

Verified Purchase

I ordered this twice. The first one is excellent and nice and secure and easy to get 3 by 5 index cards that I have in my recipe binder in and out easily.

The second time I ordered, I got the item pictured. Which is most definitely not even close.

Work good for putting autograph and relic cards in binders.

February 13, 2019

Verified Purchase

Not sure exactly what these were intended for, but I use them to store autograph and relic baseball cards in my binders. I use invisible scotch tape at the top to prevent the cards from falling out. They will fit top loaders, one touches and card sleeve.

Recipes

February 19, 2012

I am using this to hold recipe cards that i have created myself. on one side, i put the recipe and on the backside, i put the photo of what it looks like (great for when you don't know what you want to make--see what looks good to you)--thanks pinterest!!! I have almost filled this and will be ordering again. the plastic is heavier duty than a regular sheet protector and it looks great when my recipes are all in there. the only thing i would change is that on one of the pages, the edge

(where it seals the front side of the plastic to the backside) tore quite easily from it's bonding--like it hadn't been done correctly in the first place. in response to one of the lower-starred ratings, all of my pages were 3 hole punched and fit very uniformly in the binder that i am using. love the product, love the price point, am reordering today

Great for character cards.

These sleeves fit the new Transformers tcg Characters. I've heard it will also fit Magic Commander cards. Great for organizing those larger cards in a binder.
