Agreed. Although I would like my side out there. Maybe wrong but a case can be made for not being swift boated by taking the high road-noble but ineffective as also witnessed by those who let themselves be steamrolled by The Donsld.

i agree . nothing for the moment can be done except enjoying yourself and living well. in a storm , its silly to stick your head out of the window. just stay inside.
. yes some actors or actresses might decline a role. but. so what. no danger

If this is about SY there's nothing to be done. I'm certainly not going to dump her and I'm not going to apologize because I don't feel either of us did anything that we have to apologize for. Our romantic life is our business and not the business of the public so it's a hopeless situation because there's no way out if that's what they're holding against us.

From Woody: agree on Salem atmosphere but my situation is so radically different than Cosby's That while I do expect (and get) many ugly unfair accusations, he has to battle fifty women and criminal charges. I have one irate mother whose case was investigated and discredited and I no criminal charges ever did or could come my way. And yet I do receive a huge amount of flack. Much of it because SHE has good press connections and I have none.
