Good morning Jeffrey,

I am Florida at the NBAA annual convention this week.

Although I have my office providing preliminary support, this is something That requires my direct attention.

Additionally I am meeting with vendors (example window shade manufacturer) to get them going on budgetary estimate to replace the fabric covered mask as well as the tinted inner lenses of the window assemblies- assuming the color is acceptable and the rest of the window remains as is.

I will be back in the office on Monday morning where i will be able to dedicate the time required.

Question- am I to assume that the "lounge" area mid cabin will remain in the existing configuration(vs dining table)?

Best regards,
Eric
