Hi Dangene & Jennie,
Steve and I want to say how absolutely lovely it was getting to know you both yesterday.
You are both such beautiful, warm people we feel lucky to have met you and look forward to a long relationship.

Here is link with information on our LED Bed including commonly asked questions and LED studies backing up the claims. The studies are lengthy - our educator, Amy has her own copies of these studies with the relevant points highlighted. When I see her next week I can scan and send to you to save you struggling through them. These documents are for our staff's education only and are not written for consumers. We are in the process of translating for consumers - please keep for your educational purposes only.

We have a QVC show next Saturday so we will be back on the East Coast. We may be able to stay thru Monday if you fell you would be ready to lay out a marketing program and possible meet up with Jennifer, otherwise it'll be a couple weeks before we are back. Let me know your thoughts.

Thank you again for lunch Steve is still talking about that burger! Have a great weekend -

Warmest regards,

Joniann Marchese
