Good Morning everyone,

I am happy to be aboard the team and will do my best to help you guys to your jobs well. I understand the pressures that you are under but it is just another variable that we need to deal with collectively and push on.

Here is the punch list as discussed. Please adjust or add comments where you think appropriate. I would like to get updates every Friday.

I will be back on island the week of the 14th as I finish up with my present company next week.

Any questions or comments please feel free to call or email me in the mean time.

Marc
