

From: Terje Rod-Larsen [REDACTED]
To: "Jeevacation@gmail.com" <Jeevacation@gmail.com>
Subject: Fw: BBC World Service
Sent: Wednesday, January 11, 2012 2:34:26 PM

---

From: Fabrice Aidan [REDACTED]
To: Terje Rod-Larsen
Sent: Wed Jan 11 09:13:07 2012
Subject: Fw: BBC World Service

-----
Sent by Fabrice Aidan, United Nations

---

From: Dan Mayes [REDACTED]
Sent: 01/11/2012 02:00 PM GMT
To: Fabrice Aidan
Subject: BBC World Service

Dear Fabrice Aidan,

I am writing to you on behalf of the BBC World Service - World Today programme and have just discovered an interesting story with regards to Ban Ki-moon and Terje Roed-Larsen not being welcome in Lebanon - in particular, Larsen being named an "imposter".

I am wondering if there would be any chance that Terje Roed-Larsen would be available for an interview on this subject. You can contact me on 020 7557 1755 or 020 7557 3588 to discuss this idea.

The BBC World Service is listened to by 261 listeners worldwide and serves a large percentage of the world's population.

Kind Regards,

Daniel Mayes

BBC World Service
Bush House
Strand
London