Attached is overview of Netjets and pricing.

I have called flight options where we still have a 32,000 credit. They do not have operations in europe and will simply charter flights on our behalf.

Please advise.

Hey Rich,

Thank you so much for calling today. Excited to (hopefully) be working with you again.

As discussed our best option to have guaranteed access to both NetJets US and NetJets Europe is to take advantage of the recent drop in price in our US program (as a result of the merger late last year).

The pricing on the aircraft types we discussed is as follows:

25 hour Hawker 400XP: $115,900 (plus 7.5% FET and fuel as you fly - roughly $1,000 / hr)

25 hour Hawker 800XP: $189,900 (plus 7.5% FET and fuel at $1200 / hr)

Combo - 12.5 hours each on the 400XP/800XP: $155,400 plus FET and fuel

For your reference, the cards have an 18 month term (with the first 12 months having guaranteed access all year round/365 days and the latter 6 months having access to all but our 20 peak days).

When owning time in NetJets US, you are guaranteed a plane in NetJets Europe as well and the process is seamless (one Owner Services team/dedicated phone #). In order to account for the difference in the currency between the US Dollar and the Euro, we apply an "exchange rate" when you use US hours in Europe. They are as follows:

NETJETS U.S. OWNER OF:	FLYING H400 in Europe	FLYING H800XP in Europe
HAWKER 400XP	1.82	2.69
HAWKER 800XP	1.27	1.64

Regardless of which Jet Card option you decide to move forward with, I have obtained an approval to add a free hour (in the case of the combo card it will be 0.5 on each airplane). Catering, flight phone, landing fees, hangaring and deicing fees are ALL INCLUDED in our program (which you may be accustomed to with your current provider). When you purchase the Jet Card, your colleague will also benefit from the following:

- (1) 2 free nights at one of the Montage Resorts (Laguna Beach, Beverly Hills, or Deer Valley)

- (2) 2 comp nights at the Wynn in Vegas
- (3) $1,500 gift card for a made-to-measure suit at Ermenegildo Zegna
- (4) $3,000 gift card for Kwiat jewelry
- (5) Complimentary Enrollment in the Avis Chairman's Club
- (6) 4 free hours of chauffeured ground from Savoya
- (7) MUCH MORE!

I hope you and your colleague find the above compelling and we can get him started and welcome him to the family! I assure you the service he'll see in NetJets will be something very special on this side of the pond and in Europe and that I personally will do everything possible to ensure a great experience overall.

Have a great weekend – I look forward to hearing from you early next week! Thanks again Rich for thinking of me.
