I did not go to Millbrook because of snow...

Home- may go to Allison Sarafim's Halloween party in her Village town house later...big very social costume party...may go as myself, which is frightening enough.

Where is Burma? Angela Ismailos, a documentary filmmaker and my crazy friend who invites me to Patmos every summer is going with John Pawson, her famous English architect and his wife and a few arty people...could be a real adventure...

Your thoughts on Burma besides rubies. Peg
