Greetings Rich,
Allied Rental has 2 wood chippers for rent. They are not the same size, so Chris may need to weigh in.

Anna, when Carlos goes to pick up the lift tomorrow, I will ask him to please take a picture of each one, or should Chris go himself and talk with Mr. Mundo?

The smaller one rents for $450 per day, the larger one for $475.

jee just communicated it is our #1 priority he also confirmed that all used equipment should be inspected before purchase which will slow down the process with that in mind can you please see if this can be rented locally attached are some examples of what we are sourcing thanks
