I have a feeling I may be over it soon :(

Yes
But there is no image or sound in the head Images and sounds are in awareness
Your head is also in awareness
As is the cringe !
Nothing is outside of awareness
Max Planck " You cannot get behind consciousness "
To understand this is to be free

Whenever the cringe occurs ask " Who or what is having this experience ?" and then settle into non symbolic being/ awareness / existence .
Soon there is total peace and the knowing that all experience is the arising and subsiding of sensations images feelings or thoughts - a modularon of awareness itself and not to be taken personally as the person also is just a construct - a fictional character

my personal new favortie is that reality is natures notation. like muscial notation, it is the playing that is the root of the experience. . notations are open to interpretations. . each instrument playsfrom the same music noatation but has its own tones and resonances. . we see things (notation) , our instrument (brain). plays it for us. looking at the instrument and how it is made , tells you nothing about the music it is designed to play or waht that music sounds like i enjoy your new fascination with the term human constructs as well as mobjects.

reality is a mobject. though it is difficult to recreate smells. or physical pain. . Im not sure why people cry OW , when there is no one around. we can also look at psychological torture.

Funny and insightful

It is the awareness in which the person is a fictional character
