Jamie, the head of the Paralegal Studies at Pace University, called me back re their program. [REDACTED] is too late to sign up for this semesters physical classes. The next open enrollment for physical classes starts in Nov. for the March semester. She could also take their on line courses any time she wanted. They have a 1 hour webinar on Nov. 15th she can sign up for to receive more information re the programs..if she signs up and watches the webinar she will receive a $200 discount on classes.
She should investigate:

cps.pace.edu

Here she can research the paralegal studies offered.
