...don't get me wrong. I appreciate things good happened. Thank you. Unfortunately my impression is that becoming a mistress was the only one job proposition you were really serious about. I refused so it meant all is over. Thanks for all your advices but those were mainly related to my personal life - birth control, choosing car ect - not professional career I was interested in. My modelling is also completely over - the gap when I was rejecting jobs due to travelling to Island was too long. Besides my agency knows where I was going from somewhere. I also had to remove last year from my resume - ppl were asking uncomfortable questions on job interviews regarding VI and i never got a job afterwards. Meeting Gates or Woody was great - thank you - will never forget it - although nobody hire me just because I have a nice pictures with them. I wish you well
