Hello Richard,

I would like to arrange my schedule accordingly:

- Sunday January the 10 fly from LAS to ABQ to arrive ABQ around 10:30 AM.
- Work in the residence on Sunday the 10th and Monday the 11th
- Depart either Monday evening or Tuesday morning pending flight availability.

For this to occur I will need to rearrange my NY bound flight from LAS to ABQ thus incurring a change fee. There is also the cost of a flight from LAS to ABQ. My daily rate is $1,200 and will be prorated where applicable. Travel is invoiced at 50% of billable rate. The roundtrip from NY will not be billable as I was schedule for CES prior to this opportunity. All flight and related expenses will be passed through at cost.

Please advise if this schedule and the terms are agreeable. Thank you.

Regards,
Al
