Discontinued.
No new 1271N's

Only re manufactured.
Old technology that won't match EPA Regulations.
Discontinued years ago.

I called Billy Harrison on his cell and he didn't answer. I left the message with the needed info and will report back when I hear something.

I know I saw an ad in workboat magazine about it but I'm not sure it's new or re manufactured.

Just got a call back from Billy. Said he was unaware of any new 2 cycle products.
