Ok. It's your decision, I have nothing to say. I'm sorry we won't see each other. This doesn't mean I will not keep trying. You are great

I asked you repeatedly are you sure, you want to follow the path of returning to a shit school , it will mean you can't travel with me and we won't see each other. you told me " sorry, its like dat" . frankly its now too late. I have made other plans. others will travel with me and this mess is only as a direct result of your decisions. I will help you as much as i can now but you have not lived up to any of your commitments to me for month after month, the last time, only three weeks ago telling me . i will start now, i am just slow , and then did it again. i will think about a solution , but none comes immediately to mind. miss you
