Here's what I have on this point now re Gates Foundation. Add whatever you can to it, and I'll try again. It's an important enough point, on reconsideration, that it doesn't have to be that simple. "It is Bill Gates who at the end of the summer began prodding Epstein to begin a process of public rehabilitation. Epstein has been advising Gates on a new way to increase the clout of the Gates Foundation by adding a constellation of other charitable funds that would be bundled with the Gates operation."
