Dear Jeffrey,

Jean-Luc has suggested that we meet to talk about the present situation, and perhaps explore the conditions of a way out.

I told Jean-Luc that I was not willing to act as a lawyer but just as a friend, by expressing my views and suggestions on an entirely confidential basis.

If you are interested, contact me to arrange a meeting. I would prefer that it takes place in Paris or in London, since I am travelling a lot at the moment. I will be available from 15th April to 8th May, and then I am going to Brazil until 15th May.

All my best

Matthieu de Boissésou
