Hi Lesley,

I just had a phone conversation with Lynne Meloccaro regarding the managers' list you sent me last week. She's trying to figure out which ones are the best to contact. As usual, one always needs a very good and strong introduction in order to get them interested. She might write to Jeffrey about that also. I just wanted to give you the feedback.

Could you please thank Jeffrey and send him my best thoughts? I don't think I have his direct email.

I also hope I will get to meet you one day, on my next trip to New York maybe!

All best,

Simon
