Wow. So much great work on power and also deception and, in some cases, related to $$$$. Right up your alley... And some of his work is related to stuff I'm looking at.

I think he's terrific.

So - I'm in Durham & Raleigh exploring. I like Boston, but I also really like Durham (weather better, more nature, less densely populated, lots of tech/psych/neuroscience, easy travel in/out, etc). So I spoke with Dan about Durham & about some of the things I'm working on.

Talk soon!!

There's a Seattle area medical company I'm looking at. Started by an incredible vascular surgeon. Not sure if they have room for investors. I'll ask if you're up for talking with them. Aortica.
