Farkas has a share with Heliflight...David Dowling, in Farkas office, booked the heli. Currently you are scheduled for the Sikorsky 76 but if there is any maintenance issue or problem, you could go in a Bell 430 which holds 6 passengers. It is not likely you will get bumped from the Sikorsky, but if you want to secure it then David would have to ask them if it is available to secure and they would just have to pay more...but if you are 6 or less, you should be fine as is.
