DRAFT - ????

Dick,

I am very surprised and personally insulted that you do not even reply.

For the record:

Since the company was founded 2006 I have NEVER taken a salary nor was i planning to do so now. Contrary, as sign of commitment to you my CEO has reduced his salary to Zero since the summer.

I remind you: in the summer (June!) you and I agreed on this deal.

I turned away other investors based on your word and have incurred legal costs in excess of USD 400.000 since.

Your lawyers have not drafted a single document but made endless requests. The guy you appointed was incompetent.

Your new head of direct investments has spoken to me three times in his life for not more than 10 minutes.

His judgement is of no substance as far as I am concerned.

In fact, investing USD 1m in GNS Healthcare - which is equally not profitable, while you don't even get a board seat - proves that his lame excuses are lies.

I expected more of you and our relationship.

David
