#3 THE ORIGINAL CRAFTSMAN

In 2013, we admired a designer who became the backbone of Danish Modern – a man who believed that function came first, but that didn't need to mean stiff or bland. Instead, he thought that a simple chair could be comfortable and beautiful – and we agree. Constantly pursuing perfection means the perfect fusion of modern plus organic, making compelling shapes and groundbreaking style for everyday objects. Celebrate the marriage of form and function with us, with this Danish Modern-inspired collection of remarkable chairs and their finest complements. Shop Now

#2 TOUCH OF CHROME

We also fell in love with one designer's philosophy that furniture that should serve its owner, undemanding of the fuss and formality of traditional furnishings. With a series done in brilliant metallic tubing and handsome monochrome, he elevated simplicity and function to the very definition of modern, making futuristic feel luxurious. Now you, too can find unique clocks, chrome lamps, and high-class chairs to outfit your living room in fashionable, functional high style. Shop Now

#1 MASTERS OF MID-CENTURY

This year, we were inspired by two iconic designers' ideal that style should not come at the expense of comfort. As early as 1940, their unexpectedly comfortable molded plywood, followed by revolutionary fiberglass designs, were heralded as the "chairs of tomorrow." And ever since, they've provided the gold standard in modern style and comfort, becoming status pieces worthy of display as works of modern art. From atomic age rugs and coat racks to our celebrated Slope Chair, see how we've honored the best in mid-century design. Shop Now
