Hi [REDACTED],

Happy New Year! Hope you enjoyed the holidays and all your travels!

<=p>

It's great to hear that the new faux fur was a success! The mill has been closed for the holidays so I have not been able to get the final information regarding price, etc. But I expect that things should be in full swing by Monday. Sorry for the wait. This time of year always throws everything off a bit.

<=p>

Stay warm!

All the best, </=>

Jared
