Maybe I just didn't express myself correctly -I didn't want to say that I don't want to receive all this goodness from you. Not at all! I just wanted to say that you are so generous and good for me so that sometimes I just start thinking why is it all happening to me, why is it me that receives such a great generosity?? Do I really deserve it, why I'm so special?? I'm really very very thankful to you and every day I just think how lucky I am that I had an opportunity to meet such a unique person like you!!

Sue has just brought me the iPad mini that you asked her to get for my little sister. Thank you so much, it is really a very useful and fun thing to have but it should be quite expensive too... I feel a bit uncomfortable to take it and give it as a present to my sister... I don't think I deserve all this attention and all good things that I receive from you!
