You were right.
And in a great part it was thank to your help!
And I can't thank enough.

You can ignore his first email as it did not have enough details - just look at the first legal documents I got (an average of my last two years salary or FO).

Nevertheless, I think I am still not out - it will take another few months (3-6) to get a fund off the ground.

I am at work since 7am - working on the investment strategy. I need to have it done for the most part within next few days. After that I will send it to few people that I trust to correct/fill/edit. It will be a good one.

Hope your Xmas is better than mine!

THANK YOU

B
