Hi Richard,

I'm writing to ask if you have any update concerning Mr. Epstein's donation and if I can provide any more information.

Thanks,

Jean-François Gariépy

Hi Richard,

Unfortunately this is impossible because NEURO.tv is not associated to Duke University. I am simply a researcher at Duke University and we have no formal agreement with them that would allow me to obtain the money afterward, although EURO.tv is planned to become a Duke organization in the next year.

If it is a problem to give to a non-profit that has not yet obtained 501c(3), you can also make the check payable to myself, Jean-François Gariépy, as an individual, and send the money at the same address. We need to have access to the money very fast to insure the success of the Kickstarter campaign and we hope that Mr. Epstein will understand the tight time frame that we are working with. In any case I guarantee that we have applied to obtain the 501c(3) and that I will send you a receipt as soon as the status is obtained.

Please tell me if Mr. Epstein is still willing to contribute to our cause under these conditions. If giving to a non-501c(3) organization means some costs to you, we are willing to take a reduced amount of money too.

Jean-François Gariépy

we must make check payable to a 501c(3) therefore we will make out to Duke University should we still send to your attention at address below?
please advise
thank you

Dear Mr. =pstein,

Your trust in our initiative means a lot to me and =iana. I am attaching a brochure which describes the different types of =artnerships that we offer.

We are looking at funding the initiative using two methods. First, =he Kickstarter campaign at <http://kickstarter.neuro.tv> <<http://kickstarter.neuro.tv/>> seeks to gather funds =rom scientists and the general public who support us and our goal of =25,000 needs to be attained before the end of November. Secondly, as =escribed in the brochure, we are looking for one or two major =nstitution or foundation to partner with, or many smaller donations =rom multiple foundations and institutions. We would prefer partnering =ith one or two major donors. The total amount of money needed on the =nstitutional side ranges from $20,000 to $50,000. The exact amount =eeded depends on the requirements of the donor. For instance, if a main =onor was willing to share sponsorship of the program with Duke =niversity, who has expressed interest in sharing sponsorship, then =20,000 would suffice. If you would like to fund the entire initiative, =hen we would need something closer to the $50,000 mark.

The Kickstarter campaign can be contributed to directly on the =eb, while institutional donations can be made by check to "NEURO.tv =nc.". Please let me know which type of partnership you would be =nterested in and I can give you our address.

As you know from our previous email and campaign on the web, =EURO.tv is an innovative platform that not only seeks to produce an =nteresting show on the brain but also regroupes some of the brightest =inds in neuroscience and philosophy for one hour while they discuss =bout what matters to them and determine what should be the future =irections in our investigation of the brain and behaviors. The help of =isionary individuals like you will be essential to realize our dream of =n academic show that is both scientifically accurate and free to view =or everyone.

We thank you for your interest in our unique =nitiative.

Sincerely,

Jean-François =ariépy
