I will call in a moment. Phil did not respond to my email. My sister-in-law called me at the office Wednesday. Mattie, her daughter came to a dinner I gave for Lord and Lady Astor. The florist, Bronson van Wyck was sitting next to her and said "I know your aunt is not talking to your father.". Such a stupid thing for a gay florist to do. Mattie repeated it to her mother Erin.

Erin calls me crying to say she has not spoken to me since my mother died...and if I did not stop this, I would never see Mattie again. She said Mattie says that in the end she gets everything so she is impartial.

Erin's threat is ridiculous.

I mentioned that Gary invaled my father's trust and gave him the money. She said, which is Gary's feelings, that that was my mother's decision not Gary's....therefore indicating Gary was not at fault. When I said he broke the law, she had no idea what I was talking about.

I screamed at her that this had nothing to do with her, it's my Grandfather and Father's money that was meant to be split between Gary and me and hung up on this stupid fool.

How are you? My business is booming. Still have no signed agreement from asshole Bryan Bantry...new accountant excellent and he and Bernard St. Armond are close.

Company beyond busy and 8 kids working 24/7. Just did a spectacular event at Polo Lounge last night tha Disney President Alan Horn hosted with original 85 year old lyricist/composer of "Mary Poppins" film lead on a grand piano, a sing-a-long for 200 Academy voters belting out "Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious" etc. All my idea and Disney is over the moon. We put "Saving Mr. Banks" on the map as now a contender in the Oscar race. Emma Thompson brought Sean Penn and he sang with Mickey Rooney! Great press/great event. I am doing one to two of these things a day.

Will call in a bit.

xoxo Peg

Got Austin Hearst to take a villa in St. Barth's and invite me for the xmas holiday, he has his sailboat there too. I have the movies and have to get him invited all over but Hearst is not a hard name to drag around.
